VOL. I. SALISBURY, N. C., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1865. NO. 127

PROCLAMATION

BY

WILLIAM W. HOLDEN

PROVISIONAL GOVERNOR,

TO THE

People of North Carolina.

WHEREAS, a Convention of the People of N. Carolina has been chosen in pursuance of the proclamation of ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, under the fourth section of the fourth article of the Constitution of the United States, which guarantees to every State in the Union a republican form of government, for the purpose of enabling the loyal people of said State to organize a State government whereby justice may be established, domestic tranquility restored, and loyal citizens protected in all their rights of life liberty and property; and for the purpose also of restoring said State to its Constitutional relations to the Federal Government, by presenting such a republican form of government as will entitle the State to the guarantee of the United States therefor, and its people to protection by the United States against invasion, insurrection, and domestic violence; And said Convention having assembled in the City of Raleigh and adopted Ordinances hereinafter set forth, I, WILLIAM W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor of said State, do hereby proclaim and declare, that an election will be held in the various counties of said State on Thursday, the ninth day of November 1865, as follows:

1st. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance declaring null and void the ordinance of May the 20th, 1861."

2d. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance prohibiting slavery in the State of N. Carolina."

3d. For a Governor and members of the General Assembly.

4th. For seven members of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States.

5th. For Clerks and Sheriffs of the respective counties.

The elections shall be conducted in accordance with "An Ordinance providing for the election of members of the General Assembly, to be convened on the 4th Monday of November, 1865, and for electing Representatives in Congress and Governor of the State," ratified by the Convention the 10th day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and hereinafter set forth; said Ordinance having been passed in pursuance of the proclamation of the President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, authorizing said Convention to "prescribe the qualification of electors, and the eligibility of persons to hold office under the constitution and laws of the State." And also, in conformity with the rules and regulations prescribed by the laws of this State concerning said elections, in force previous to the 20th day af May, 1861.

The people of the State are respectfully urged to maintain order among themselves at the election, and to discountenance appeals, the tendency of which may be to produce ill feeling and alienation towards the federal government. The policy of the government has been liberal and generous towards North Carolina, and no pains should be spared to secure a continuance of this policy.

And the officers in the various counties, appointed by the Provisional Governor, are enjoined to exert themselves to preserve the peace among the people on the day of the election; to act with justice and firmness in all matters that may claim their attention; to see that those entitled to vote are protected in their right of suffrage, and that every manifestation, if such manifestations there should be, of hostility to the federal government, is promptly rebuked and repressed.

Done at our city of Raleigh, the 18th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and in the year of the Independence of the United States the ninetieth.

W. W. HOLDEN,
Provisional Governor.

Oct. 18, 1865. ted126;

☞ The press upon our columns is so great that we have no room, at present, for original matter.

The subjoined important dispatch was received by Governor Holden from the President a few days since, and was at once forwarded by him to the President of the Convention.

This dispatch settles the question of repudiation of the Confederate war debt of the State. It is no longer a question of policy, but of expediency.—We have always been opposed to the policy of repudiation, and we now yield to it as a necessity incumbent upon us by the results of the late war. It is the will of the general Government that this debt be repudiated. Shall we not submit to it with the same becoming dignity that characterized the surrender of the Confederate armies? If we are really in earnest or anxious to return to the Union, we cannot hesitate. We believe the radical faction that brought out Jonathan Worth, in opposition to Governor Holden are in favor of paying the debt, notwithstanding the warning of President Johnston, that it must be repudiated before we can be readmitted into the Union. It is well known that the large majority of the bonds, issued by the State for the purpose of carrying on the war, is held by speculators. Shall the honest yeomanry of the country be pressed down with taxes to pay a debt held by speculators and extortioners, when it is well known that the certainty or uncertainty of our re-admission into the Union depends upon it?

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, Oct., 18, 1865.

To the Hon. Ewin G. Reade, President of the Convention:

Sir—I have just received the fallowing telegraphic dispatch from the President of the United States and respectfully request that you will lay it before the Convention.

I have the honor to be with high respect,
Your obedient Servant,
W. W. HOLDEN,
Provisional Governor.

W. W. Holden, Provisional Governor:

Every dollar of the debt created to aid the rebellion against the United States should be repudiated finally and forever. The great mass of the people should not be taxed to pay a debt to aid in carrying on a rebellion, which they, in fact, if left to temselves were opposed to.

Let those who have given their means for the obligation of the States, look to that power they tried to establish in violation of law, constitution and the will of the people. They must meet their fate. It is their misfortune and cannot be recognized by the people of any State, professing themselves loyal to the government of the United States and the Union.

I repeat that the loyal people of North Carolina should be exonerated from the payment of every dollar of indebtedness created to aid in carrying on the rebellion.

I trust and hope that the people of North Corolina will wash their hands of everything that partake in the slightest degree of the rebellion, which has been so recently crushed by the strong arm of the government in carrying out the obligation imposed by the Constitution of the Union.

ANDREW JOHNSON,
President United States.

OBSTINACY.

One great objection alleged against Jefferson Davis by the QUASI Union men of the Confederacy, was that he was obstinate, self-willed, and could neither be persuaded nor forced by expediency, to do anything in opposition to his peculiar way of thinking. If this allegation was true, in regard to Davis, it certainly was a trait, to say the best for him, very reprehensible; but do not the friends of Jonathan Worth, know that they have a counterpart in the person of that distinguished radical, Jonathan? Jonathan, is well known to be one of the most opinionated, "self-conceited" individuals now living. Mr. Davis' unyielding disposition, was as warm wax beside a stone, when compared with that of Jonnathan, the irrepressible radical.—Such men are a curse to any age or people. We hope North Carolinians will think of this.

PARDONS.

Among the list of pardons received at the Executive office at Raleigh, we notice the following persons from Rowan: D. S. Bringle, W. H. Bailey, Thos. E. Brown, J. A. Hawkins, M. L. Holmes, J. M. R. White, Jesse Thomason, S. S. Tood, and W. A. Trott.

Two hundred and forty-four pardons are said to be in the Executive office at Raleigh at this time.

MURDER.

We learn that Allen Carter went to the house of Bushrod Lilly of Stanly county, on the night of the 18th inst. assaulted him with a bowie knife, and murdered him in cold blood. Carter made his escape. Provication not known.

Death of the Rev. R. L. Krider.

We are pained to record the melancholy intelligence that the Rev. R. L. Krider is no more. He died of Typhoid Pneumonia, on Thursday night the 19th instant. Mr. Krider was a graduate of Davidson College, and for many years the esteemeed and successful Pastor of Thyatira church in this county. Highly popular as a man, and a Minister, he exerted a wholesome influence in the community in which he resided.

Few, if any, were more highly esteemed among his ministerial brethren than he. But he rests from his labors, and his works will follow him.

N. C. STATE CONVENTION.

Mr. Pool of Bertie moved to amend, by stricking out the words "any authority purporting" and insert the words, "what purported"—but the motion was not adopted.

Mr. Pool, moved to strike out the entire section and insert as follows: "No person who may have aided in the passage or execution of any law of the State of North Carolina or of the Confederate States shall be held liable to indictment or civil action, for such aid, because of the fact only that such law was void on account of its being in contravention of the Constitution of the State or of the United States.

Mr. Pool sustained his amendment. It was as far as he was willing to obliterate the acts of those acting under the authority of the State or Confederate States. If it were not the fact that people expected the laws to be vindicated, scenes in his portion of the State, from which the mind turns in horror, would occur. He did not think it prudent to go any farther now than is provided in his amendment, nor was he prepared to say that justice demanded that we should go farther in the future. In attempting to throw into oblivion, what had occurred, we may arouse feelings which might be attended with results more terrible than those stamped on the past.

Mr. Phillips of Orange moved to amend the amendment as follows: That the fifth section as amended, is declared to be the sentiments of the Convention.

Upon this, Mr. Love of Jackson, demanded the ayes and nays and it was sustained, and the amendment of Mr. Phillips was adopted. Ayes 87, nays 18.

Those who voted in the affirmative are Messrs. Adams, Alexander, Allen, Baines, Barker, Beam, Bell, Berry, Bingham, Bradley, Brickell, Brown, Burgin, Buxton, Clark, Conigland, Cowper, Dickey, Eaton, Fairecloth, Faison, Ferebee, Furches, Gilliam, Godwin, Grissom, Harris of Guilford, Haynes, Hanrahan, Hodge, Howard, Jarvis, Johntson, Jones of Columbus, Jones of Davidson, Joyce, Joyner, Kelly, Kennedy, King, Logan, Love of Chatham, Love of Jackson, Lyon, Manly, McCauley, McCleese, McCorkle, McCoy of Sampson, McKay of Harnett, McDonald of Chatham, McDonald of Moore, McGehee, McIver, N. A. McLean, Nat. McLean, McLaughlin, McRae, Mebane, Moore of Chatham, Moore of Wake, Murphy, Nicholson, Norfleet, Odom, Perkins, Phillips, Polk, Rumley, Russell, Rush, Saunders, Simmons, Smith, of Anson, Smith of Johnstan, Smith of Wilkes, Spencer of Hyde, Starbuck, Stephenson, Stubbs, Swan, Walkup, Ward, Willey, Wilson, Winburne, Winston, Wright.—87.

Those who voted in the negative are Messrs. Boyden, Bryan, Caldwell of Burke, Caldwell of Guilford, Donnell, Faulkner, Gahagan, Garland, Garrett, Jackson, Jones of Henderson, Jones of Rowan, Patterson, Pool, Sloan, Spencer of Montgomery, Stewart, Thompson.—18.

So the section as amended was adopted.

Amendments were offered to other sections and the ordinance being still under consideration, the Convention took a recess until 7 o'clock P. M.

The committee on "lost records" was announced as follows: Messrs. Buxton, Cumberland; Norfleet, Edgecomb; Starbuck, Forsyth; Allen, Duplin; and Faircloth, Wayne.

NIGHT SESSION.

October 17th, 7 o'clock, P. M.

Mr. Stubbs of Martin asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. Johnston of Washington county for the remainder of the session.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The ordinance "declaring what ordinances are in force and for other purposes" came up on its third reading. Mr. Moore of Wake moved an amendment to the third section, which was adopted, and the ordinance passed. (It will be published in full as soon as we can make room for it.)

Mr. Moore of Wake called up an ordinance to protect the owners of property and for other purposes, and under a suspension of the rules, it passed its several readings. [Provides that persons appointed by the Provisional Governor, Judges of the Courts of Oyer and Terminer are invested with power to exercise severally at their chambers, all the powers and authorities as by the laws of the State are confered on the Judges of the Superior Court of Law and Equity at chambers, and may issue writs of injunction, sequestration, ne exeat, and capias, under the rules prescribed in the Revised Code, for the purpose of protecting and securing against loss or damage, the owner of any kind of estate, real, personal or mixed, or the creditor of any person whatsoever; and to this end may make all neces-ary rules, orders and decrees; for disobedience whereof the party offending may be attached for contempt. And gives the said Judges power for the full organization of such courts, with means to enforce their writs &c.]

Mr. Smith of Wilkes, introduced an ordinance to remove obstructions from the Yadkin River. Lies over.

The ordinance in relation to the late officers of the State came up on its third reading.

Mr. Conigland of Halifax, introduced a substitute.

Mr. Moore of Wake presented a substitute for the substitute.

Mr. Conigland proceeded to support his substitute in a most able speech, but during its delivery gave way to a motion of Mr. Phillips of Orange, to make this ordinance the special order for to-morrow at 1 o'clock, and the motion prevailed.

The tax bill was then taken up, amended and passed its third reading. (This bill, and the amendments offered to it, will be reported, in full as soon as our limits will permit.)

FIFTEENTH DAY.

October 18th, 1865.

Prayer by the Rev. J. M. Atkinson, of the Presbyterian Church.

The journal was read and approved.

The President remarked that by a resolution of the Convention the President was requested to procure a flag to be hoisted over the Capitol during our session. The President conferred with two gentlemen residents here and officially connected with the Convention, and they informed him that an effort had been made and a flag could not be obtained in the city. He then requested those gentlemen to endeavor to procure one. They informed him that they have not been able to do so. Earnestly desiring to do this duty, he hopes both for himself and for the Convention, that the will may be taken for the deed.

Mr. Furches of Davie introduced a resolution requesting Governor Holden to correspond with General Ruger, asking that such horses and mules as had been left with citizens by the Federal Army, should remain as the property of said citizens.

The resolution, under suspension of the rules was adopted.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The resolutions of thanks to President Johnson and Governor Holden came up as the unfinished business, and were adopted. (They have been published.)

The resolution empowering the President to purchase a parchment for the purpose of enrolling the ordinance declaring null and void the ordinance of May 20th 1861, was adopted.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Eleven o'clock having arrived, the ordinance to organize a temporary force for the preservation of law and order, came up as the special order.

The ordinance is as follows:

Be it ordained by the delegates of the people in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That the Sheriffs appointed under the Provisional Government, shall, as soon as practicable summons the Justices of the Peace as appointed by the Provisional Governor, for their respective counties, to meet at the Court House of the several counties, on a day certain, and a majority, or such number of said Justices as shall be assembled, shall have power, and they are hereby authorized, to enroll and organize as many military companies, as auxiliaries to the county Police, as they in their discretion may deem necessary, for the preservation of law and order, under the following rules and regulations:

The said Justices shall enroll all or any portion of the free white male residents between the ages of eighteen and thirty-five, and if necessary extend the enrolment to forty-five years.

They shall appoint or direct the election of all ne essary officers. They shall prescribe the duties, police or otherwise, to be discharged by said forces. They shall make such exemption as they may deem proper. They shall have power to enforce all their orders by the infliction of such pains and penalties as they may consider necessary, just and proper. And in case o. any serious disturbance or outbreak, the said forces shall be deemed auxiliary to the County Police, and shall be subject to the same orders. And the said Justices shall, from time to time, have power and they are hereby authorized to adopt such measures as they may deem necessary to render the said forces efficient for the purpose herein set forth.

Be it further ordained, That this ordinance shall remain in full force until the militia are organized; or until it is modified or repealed by the General Assembly.

Be it further ordained, That the Clerk of this Convention shall transmit a copy of this ordinance to each Sheriff and County Court Clerk in the State immediately after its ratification.

Mr. Ferebee, said he had not examined the ordinance, but had no doubt it was as good a one as could be adopted at this late hour. It was necessary for immediate action, nineteen twentieths of the people of his section were entirely without arms; they have been taken from from a military necessity, of which I make no complaint. Many negroes, who have been in the service of the United States, have been disbanded and returned home, and most of them with arms, and much uneasiness is felt, and a local defense much desired. He trusted the ordinance would be passed.

Mr. Dockery of Richmond, concurred with the delegate from Camden, and hoped the ordinance would be adopted.

Mr. Barrow of Northampton, desired to know if Gen. Ruger approved the ordinance.

Mr. Dockery repled that the committee had called upon the General and he had approved generrally of a police force, but that if it assumed the proportions of an army it must be under the United States authority.

Mr. Barrow was not unfavorable to the measure but we must not forget that we are under martial law, and he did not wish to come in conflict with the military authority.

Mr. Dockery referred the delegate from Northampton, to the position of the President in his letter to Gen. Sharkey of Mississippi on this subject.

Mr. Howard of Edgecomb, referred the delegate from Northampton (Mr. Barrow) to the clause in the ordinance which makes the force, proposed to be raised, auxiliaries to the County Police, and subject to the same orders. And also it was not made obligatory upon Justices to raise the force, but only where in their opinion it was thought necessary.

The ordinance passed its second reading, and upon a further suspension of the rules, upon motion of Mr. Ferebee, the ordinance was finally passed.

The resolutions of inquiry of the Public Treasurer what amount has been expended for the families of indigent soldiers, &c., were upon motion of Mr. Brooks of Pasquotank laid on the table.

The resolution calling upon the Governor for copies of certain acts of the General Assembly passed in secret session, was adopted.

The resolution requesting the President to proclaim to the people of North Carolina restored to their rights and privileges under the constitution and the Union was passed.

The resolutions requesting the Governor to correspond with the President of the United States with regard to officers and citizens confined by the military authorities in Raleigh and Wilmington North Carolina were read, and after an amendment offeeed by Mr. Brooks, so as to include Major Willis Sanderlin, who was confined at Newberne, it was adopted.

Mr. Brooks testified as to the character of Major Sanderlin, and Mr. McKoy of Sampson supported the resolutions.

'TIS NOT A FABLE.

The immense and universal demand for the Fragrant Sozocont, is a marvel in the Annals of Dentistry ? It exceeds that of all other dentifrices combined. Neither acid from the stomach, nor any other corresponding element generated by indigestion, can effect a set of teeth regularly purified by this Fragrant Vegetable, antiseptic and preservative.

RALEIGH, Oct. 17, 1865.

GENTLEMEN.—Your letter of the 14th instant, requesting me to be a candidate for Governor at the election to be held on the 9th of next month, has been received. I beg to assure you that I am very grateful for this proof of your esteem and confidence.

I did not seek the place I now occupy, nor have I sought a nomination for election by the people. I have been content to do my duty to the best of my ability, under the instructions of the President, and to leave my conduct to be judged by an intelligent and indulgent people. I do not fear that judgment.

My duties have been, in many respects, new, unusual, and very onerous. I had no lights to guide me in the work of reorganizing and reconstructing an American State, save instructions received from time to time from the President; and necessarily, those instructions have been only of a general character. My paramount concern has been, so to do that part of the work assigned to me as to secure the restoration of the State to the Union at the earliest practicable period. To what extent I have succeeded in this respect it is for the people to say. I can only declare, as I most solmnly do, that I have labored with an eye single to the good and the glory of North Carolina; and that, whatever may be the decision of the people on the ninth of November, I shall always possess the consciousness that I am a faithful and devoted son of our dear old State, and that I have labored with zeal, and with what success my poor faculties could command, to improve the condition of her people, and to restore her to her appropriate and natural position in the Union.

Gentlemen, it is not agreeable to my feelings in a crisis like the present, when everything dear to us depends upon union and harmony among ourselves, to speak of parties. I deprecate faction and bitter party spirit as the bane of the Republic. The evils we are now suffering, with all the calamities that have befallen us, may be placed to this source. As Provisional Governor of the State, in all I have said and done, I have known no party but the sincere friends of the Union. I am neither a Democrat nor a Whig. Both these parties were buried in the grave of the rebellion. All I can say is, I am a North Carolinian, heart and soul—"I am an American," the proudest expression that can issue from human lips; and while I hold, with ANDREW JACKSON and HENRY CLAY, that the people are the source of all power in this country, and alone entitled to rule, I declare that the only party to which I belong is the National Union party, composed of the best elements of all the old parties, of which ANDREW JOHNSON is the head.

If elected Governor by the people, I will do every thing I can to promote the prosperity and happiness of North Carolina, and to secure her return at the earliest moment to her place in the federal Union.

With many thanks, gentlemen, for the confidence you have reposed in me, and for the very flattering manner in which you have been pleased to allude to me in your letter, I have the honor to be,

Your most obedient servant

W. W. HOLDEN.
